VICTORIA, B.C. V8V 1X4 MAY 27 2011

A Guide to Aboriginal Organizations and Services in British Columbia is a provincial listing of First Nation, Métis and Aboriginal organizations, communities and community services.

Publication of the Guide is coordinated by the Intergovernmental and Community Relations Branch of the Ministry of Aboriginal Relations and Reconciliation (MARR), to support relationship-building with Aboriginal people and their communities.

The Guide is not meant to be a comprehensive listing of all Aboriginal organizations in B.C., nor is it intended to offer links to all services that may be of interest to Aboriginal people. For the most part, the organizations listed in the Guide are Aboriginal-controlled and operate on a not-for-profit basis.

A searchable electronic PDF version of this publication is available on the Ministry of Aboriginal Relations and Reconciliation website at: http://www.gov.bc.ca/arr/services/guide.html.

This publication is based on data available at the time of printing. Extensive effort is made to ensure the contact information for each organization is accurate. Any errors and omissions in the print version will be addressed in periodic updates of the PDF version.

There is no cost or fee to be included in the Guide or to change information.

To request that an organization be added to or deleted from the Guide; to update contact information; or to give us feedback, please fill out the Change/Add form at the back of the Guide and send details to:

SEARCHING THE GUIDE: SOME TIPS FOR READERS

You have three ways to search over 1,100 entries in the Guide.

1. By Name

If you know the name of an organization, but not the location or what kind of service it offers, you can look for the organization name in the Alpha Index to find the right page.

2. By City or Town

If you know the city or town but you are not sure about the name of the organization, turn to the City Index. Scan down the entries, listed in alphabetical order, until you find the city or town nearest you. Organizations under each city/town heading are also listed alphabetically.

3. By Category

If you want to find a certain category of organization, you can look under the Services and Agencies section of the Table of Contents (see next page over). Locate the category of service that matches your needs.

Multiple Listings

You will find listings for the same organization repeated in several places within the Guide depending on the types of services they offer. The multiple listings are determined by each organization.

Users Survey

On the last page of the Guide you will find a Change/Add form and a Reader's Survey. We want to provide a way for you to give us your thoughts about how you and your organization use the Guide and how we could improve it in future years. Please take a few minutes to jot down a few comments and fax them back to (250) 356-9467. Your comments are always welcome.

— Thank you.

Change/Add Form and Reader's Survey 107

This section contains aids to pronunciation created with First Nations and other Aboriginal organizations listed in the 2011/2012 Guide to Aboriginal Organizations and Services in British Columbia.

When preparing this guide, we asked representatives from Aboriginal organizations to help us understand how to pronounce the traditional name of their community. The phonetic renderings we have developed here are meant as an introductory guide for the reader and are not authoritative. Any errors in the phonetic spellings are ours.

Variations in pronunciation may occur in the region where the traditional language is spoken. The final authority on a pronunciation rests with the community. The reader is advised to always gain a first-hand understanding of how a particular name is pronounced by speaking directly with and being guided by representatives from each community.

First Nation communities and organizations continue to adopt Indigenous names distinct from anglicized versions or non-Aboriginal names. Names familiar to the reader are cross-referenced with traditional names in brackets.

Your comments and suggestions for improvement are welcome.
